12 pended, subject to the provisions of appropriations Acts, 13 to carry out infrastructure and technology improvement
14 projects at our nation’s ports of entry, as assessed in sec-
15 tion 102, to reduce and prevent the nation’s land border
16 vulnerability to terrorist attack, and penetration by terror-
17 ists and criminals, while effectively facilitating the move-
18 ment of goods, services, and legitimate travelers.

19 (b) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There 20 are authorized to be appropriated $1,000,000,000 to carry 21 out the projects described in subsection (c).

22 (c) PROJECTS DESCRIBED.—The Secretary of Home-
23 land Security may carry out infrastructure and technology 24 improvement projects recommended in the report submitted under section 102 in order to reduce the vulnerability of ports of entry.

SEC. 102. REQUIRING A VULNERABILITY ASSESSMENT OF LAND PORTS OF ENTRY.

(a) INITIAL ASSESSMENT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Homeland Security shall conduct an assessment of the vulnerability of each United States land port of entry to penetration by terrorists and criminals or terrorist attack. In carrying out assessments under this paragraph, the Secretary shall categorize the vulnerability of each port of entry as “high”, “medium”, or “low” and shall prioritize the vulnerability of each port of entry within each such category. In conducting the assessment, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall consult with appropriate State, local, and private sector representatives.

(2) REPORT.—Not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall prepare and submit to the appropriate congressional committees (as that term is defined in section 2 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (6 U.S.C. 101)) a report that contains—

(A) the results of the assessment conducted under paragraph (1);

1 (B) with respect to each port of entry cat-
2 egorized under paragraph (1) as either a
3 “high” or “medium” vulnerability port of entry, 4 descriptions of—

5 (i) infrastructure and technology im-
6 provement projects required for the port of 7 entry in order to reduce its vulnerability;

11 (3) update on status and expansion of enroll-
12 ment centers;

14 and Mexican sides of the border to enhance the pro-

18 contain security features designed to limit tam-
19 pering, counterfeiting, photocopying, or otherwise

23 a biometric identifier in addition to these standards
24 if they already do so, or choose to do so.

3 TITLE III—SECURING THE INTE-
4 RIOR; TOOLS FOR BORDER
5 SECURITY

6 Subtitle A—Increase in Staff for 7 ICE

8 SEC. 301. PERSONNEL INCREASE.

9 (a) AUTHORIZATION.—There are authorized to be ap-10 propriated to the Secretary of Homeland Security such 11 sums as may be necessary so as to increase by 225 the 12 number of positions for full-time special agents of U.S.
13 Immigration and Customs Enforcement carrying out du-14 ties related to border security above the number of such 15 positions which existed at the end of fiscal year 2004.

16 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the 17 Congress that—

18 (1) since U.S. Immigration and Customs En-
19 forcement plays a key role in the fight against ter-20 rorism and in securing the borders, the Secretary of 21 Homeland Security should work expeditiously to en-
22 sure all special agents and national security analyt-
23 ical support staff receive a Top Secret security clear-24 ance; and

1 (2) maintenance of Top Secret security clear-
2 ance must be a requirement of continued employ-
3 ment as a special agent.

4 SEC. 302. ICE STRATEGY AND STAFFING ASSESSMENT.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than December 31 of 6 each year, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall sub-

18 of such report, including recommendations pertaining to 19 how U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement could 20 better deploy human resources to achieve its border secu-

1 Subtitle B—Increase in Detention
2 Space

3 SEC. 311. INCREASE IN DETENTION SPACE.

4 (a) FUNDING INCREASE.—There are authorized to be 5 appropriated to the Secretary of Homeland Security such 6 sums as may be necessary to ensure an average daily bed
7 occupancy rate of 22,500 for detention and removal oper-
8 ations of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

9 (b) PERSONNEL INCREASE.—There are authorized to 10 be appropriated to the Secretary of Homeland Security 11 such sums as may be necessary so as to increase by 541

13 Immigration and Customs Enforcement carrying out du-14 ties in detention and removal operations above the number
15 of such positions which existed at the end of fiscal year 16 2004.

17 (c) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Con-
18 gress that the Office of Detention and Removal Operation
19 should be placed under the operational control of the Com-
20 missioner of U.S. Customs and Border Protection, since 21 the largest client of such office is the Border Patrol. The 22 Secretary of Homeland Security is directed to move the 23 Office of Detention and Removal Operations from U.S.
24 Immigration and Customs Enforcement to U.S. Customs
25 and Border Protection.

1 (d) REPORT ON HOMELAND SECURITY DETENTION

5 (6 U.S.C. 101)) a report on detention and removal oper-
6 ations, detailing the amount of additional detention space
7 and resources required to detain all persons presenting a 8 possible threat to homeland security. This report shall in-9 clude information on alternatives to detention including 10 electronic monitoring, telephone and voice recognition pro-
11 grams for those on bond, and conducting deportation pro-
12 ceedings prior to prisoners release from Federal, State, 13 and local prisons. Additionally the report should provide 14 information on countries to which removal is problematic.

15 SEC. 312. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING PROCESSING
16 OF CRIMINAL ALIENS WHILE INCARCERATED.

17 It is the sense of the Congress that immigration cases
18 involving incarcerated criminal aliens should be processed
19 while the criminal alien is in prison. In order to maximize 20 the use of existing detention space, the Department of 21 Homeland Security should work with prisons in which 22 criminal aliens are incarcerated to complete their removal
23 or deportation proceeding before such aliens are released
24 from prison and sent to Federal detention.

1 SEC. 313. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING INCREASE IN 2 PROSECUTORS AND IMMIGRATION JUDGES.

3 It is the sense of the Congress that—

4 (1) prosecutors and immigration judges are 5 critical for the prompt and proper enforcement of 6 our immigration laws, and are an important part of 7 a comprehensive strategy;

8 (2) an insufficient number of prosecutors and 9 immigration judges currently exists to enforce the 10 immigration laws of the United States; and

11 (3) therefore, appropriations should be author-12 ized for appropriate staff increases for judicial and 13 prosecutorial offices, commensurate with other per-14 sonnel increases directed in this Act.

16 Enforcement Access to Informants

5 following: “The number of aliens who may be pro-
6 vided a visa as nonimmigrants under section 7 101(a)(15)(S)(iii) in any fiscal year may not exceed 8 400.”; and

9 (2) by adding at the end the following:

10 “(5) If the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Sec-
11 retary of State, or the Attorney General determines that 12 the identity of a nonimmigrant described in clause (iii) of 13 section 101(a)(15)(S), or that of any family member of 14 such a nonimmigrant who is provided nonimmigrant sta-
15 tus pursuant to such section, must be protected, such offi-16 cial may take such lawful action as the official considers

10 information described in subclause (I) of such sec-11 tion; and

12 “(B) the provision of such information has sub-13 stantially contributed to the success of a commercial 14 alien smuggling investigation, the disruption of a 15 commercial alien smuggling operation, or the pros-
16 ecution of an individual described in subclause (III)
17 of that section,

18 the Secretary of Homeland Security may adjust the status
19 of the alien (and the spouse, married and unmarried sons 20 and daughters, and parents of the alien if admitted under 21 that section) to that of an alien lawfully admitted for per-22 manent residence if the alien is not described in section
23 212(a)(3)(E).

24 “(4) The Secretary of Homeland Security may adjust
